NOW

IS . . .

a place where past and future
join.

Now is What is ———A conception of depths of thought and action.

A sigh
A voice
An impulse;
A movement forever
in the present.
Not a second out of time

Now is Breathing or
The breeze that echoes by;
It comes and goes
and yet, always stays, unchanging . . .

HONORS AND ACHIEVEMENTS

FALL A. S. B. OFFICERS

SPRING A. S. B. OFFICERS

The current trend in politics today is toward change. Armijo's student government this year was no exception. The Senate controls all school functions and awards given by the Associated Students, elections and voting, expenditures by the Associated Student Fund, and also amends the constitution.

Representatives seated were: Bev Low, Ray Kerswell, Gloria Doerr (1st semester), and Larry Elliott (2nd semester), seniors; Ginny Paine, Carrie Grable, and Dave Sumner, juniors; Jadelle Yee, Mark McClelland, and Warren Smith, sophomores; and Gloria Vidal, Gary Walker, and David Empting, freshmen.

Major bills passed included a change of basketball homecoming queen procedure from team nomination to a system in which girls petition for candidacy. Armijo's pride in its sportsmen was reflected by the purchase of team jackets. A new addition to our rallies, the Spirit Bell, was introduced as an award for class participation.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to simplify elaborate senate procedure. A bill to lower the grade point average required for student offices, and to abolish the necessary social science grade passed for the second consecutive year, but must still be passed with a ⅔ majority of the student vote to become a school policy.

The Associated Student Body was governed this spring by (top picture), Vice President Mike Day, Secretary Jan Brown, and President Phil Glashoff (also at right).

BRAZILIAN EXCHANGE STUDENT

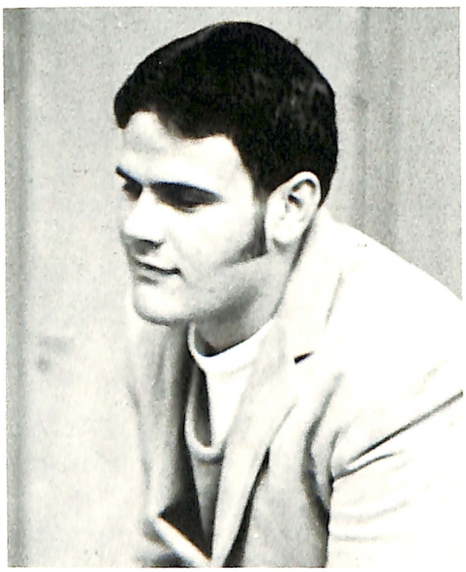

Eduardo Cantanhede, Armijo's foreign exchange student from Brazil, finds that Americans have many false impressions of his country. Some think that Brazil is "nothing but jungle," but Eduardo is quick to point out that Brazil too, has large, modern cities.

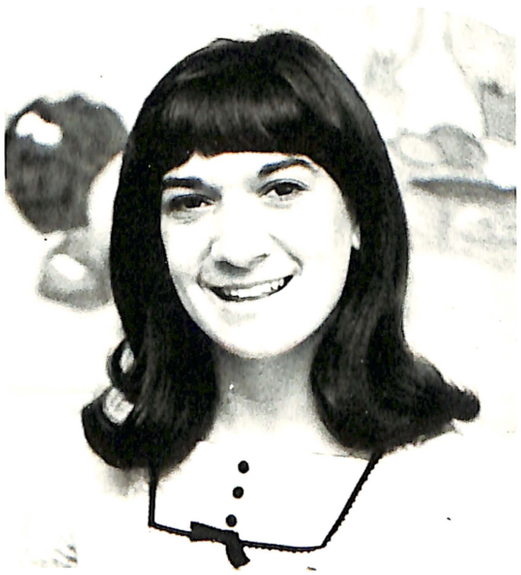

Eduardo was born in Manaus, near the Amazon. He moved to Rio de Janerio at a very early age and has lived there since. His first impression of California was, "Where is the sun?" He says that question still hasn't been answered! He was surprised by the high school system here, for in Brazil high schools are conducted more like our colleges.

Although Eduardo finds it difficult to express himself in English, he is anxious and happy to talk about his country.

OUTSTANDING TEEN AWARDS

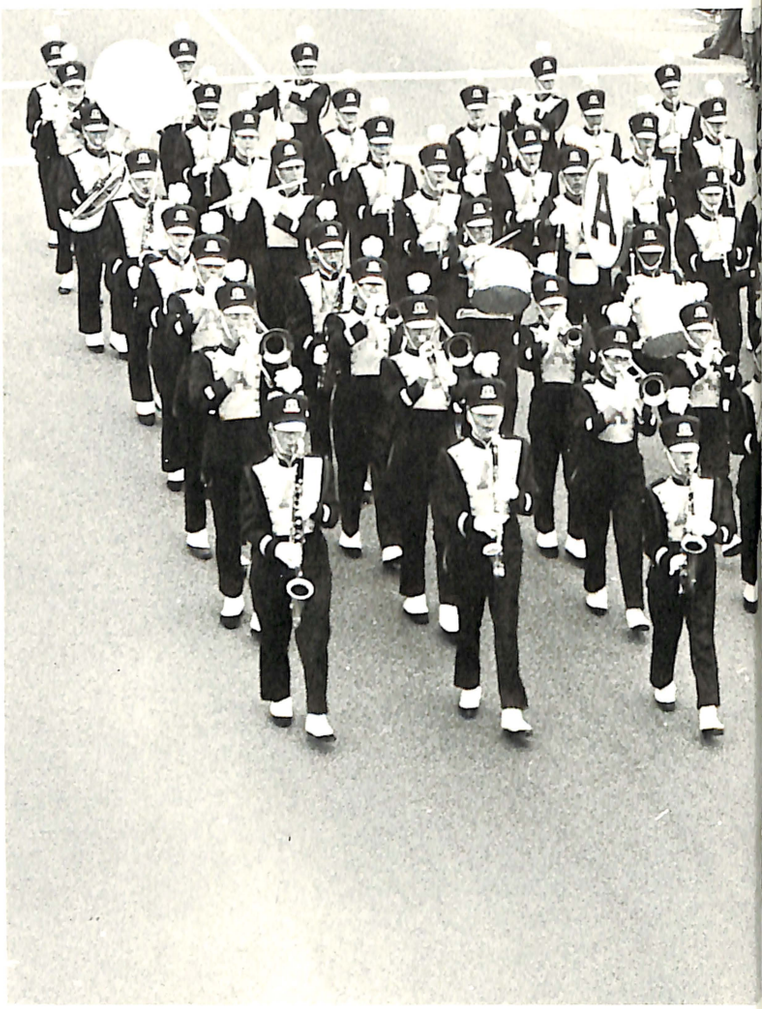

BAND TAKES NINTH AT LONG BEACH . . .

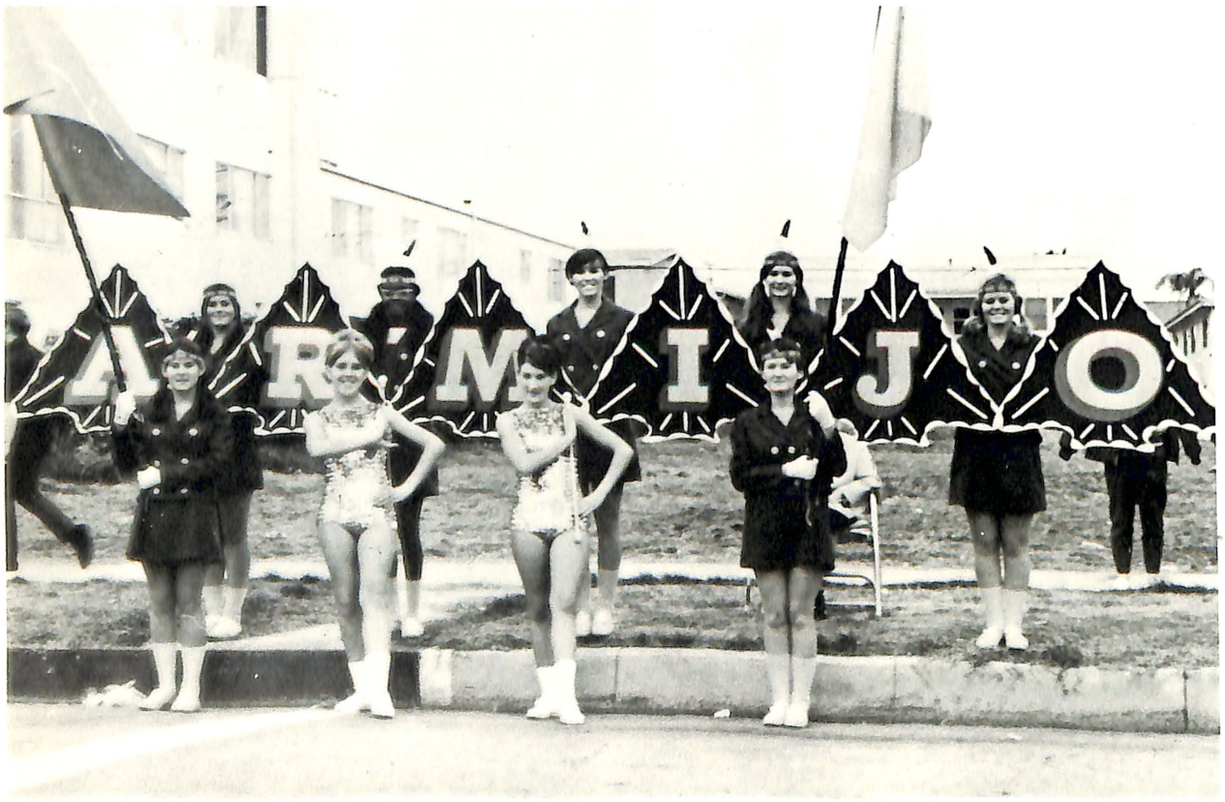

The Armijo High School Marching Band journeyed to Long Beach to compete in the All-Western Band Review, taking 9th place in their division for the first time in many years.

The musicians earned a sparkling first place in the St. Patrick's Day Parade in San Francisco.

They have competed in several parades, performed at football games, basketball games, and rallies throughout the year — sparking school spirit and pride.

Glamour was lent by majorettes: Cindy Mueller, and Ginger Decoster; and sign carriers.

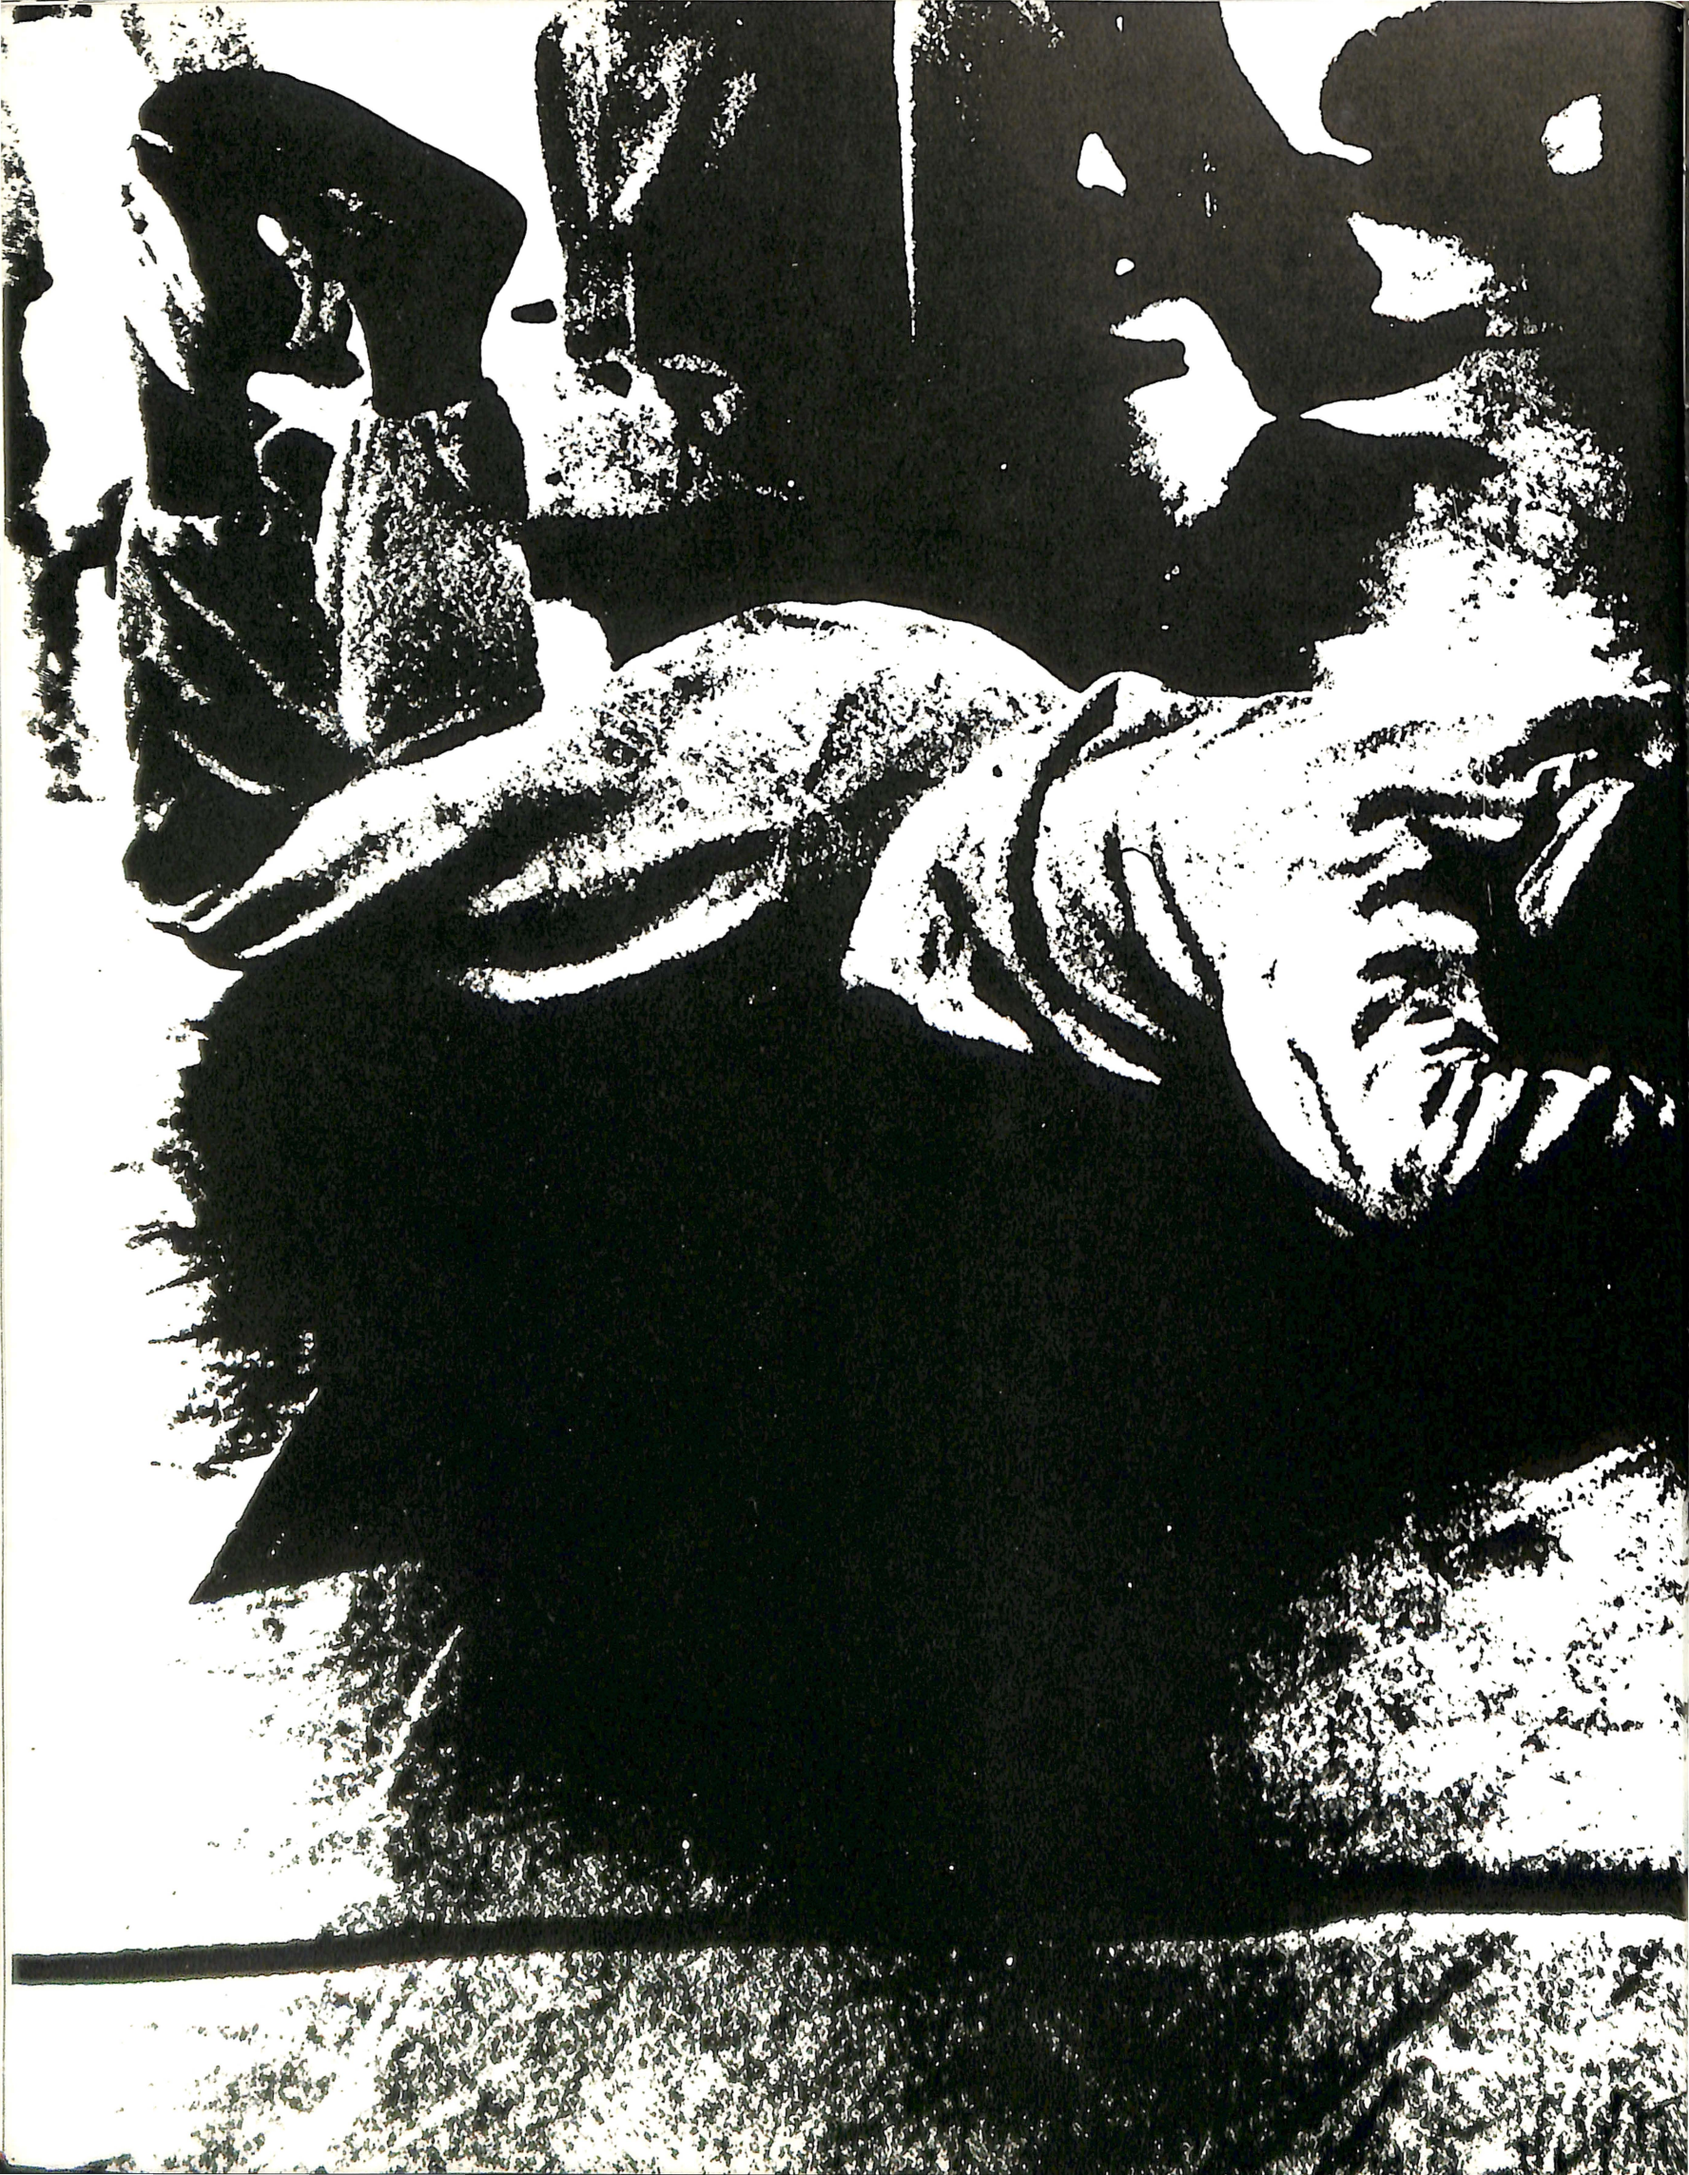

THEN FIRST IN SAN FRANCISCO!

CAMPUS LIFE

THE SPIRIT OF '69

Spirit! The nebulous idea that the pep squad turns into action . . . the heartfelt emotion channelled into electrifying energy . . . the undefinable expression changed into concrete words and phrases . . . all this and more— demonstrated, promoted, and organized by the pep squad. Each member playing her own role in building the spirit of a school, a generation, a society. This takes bravery . . . vitality . . . invincibility . . . This takes the NOW spirit.

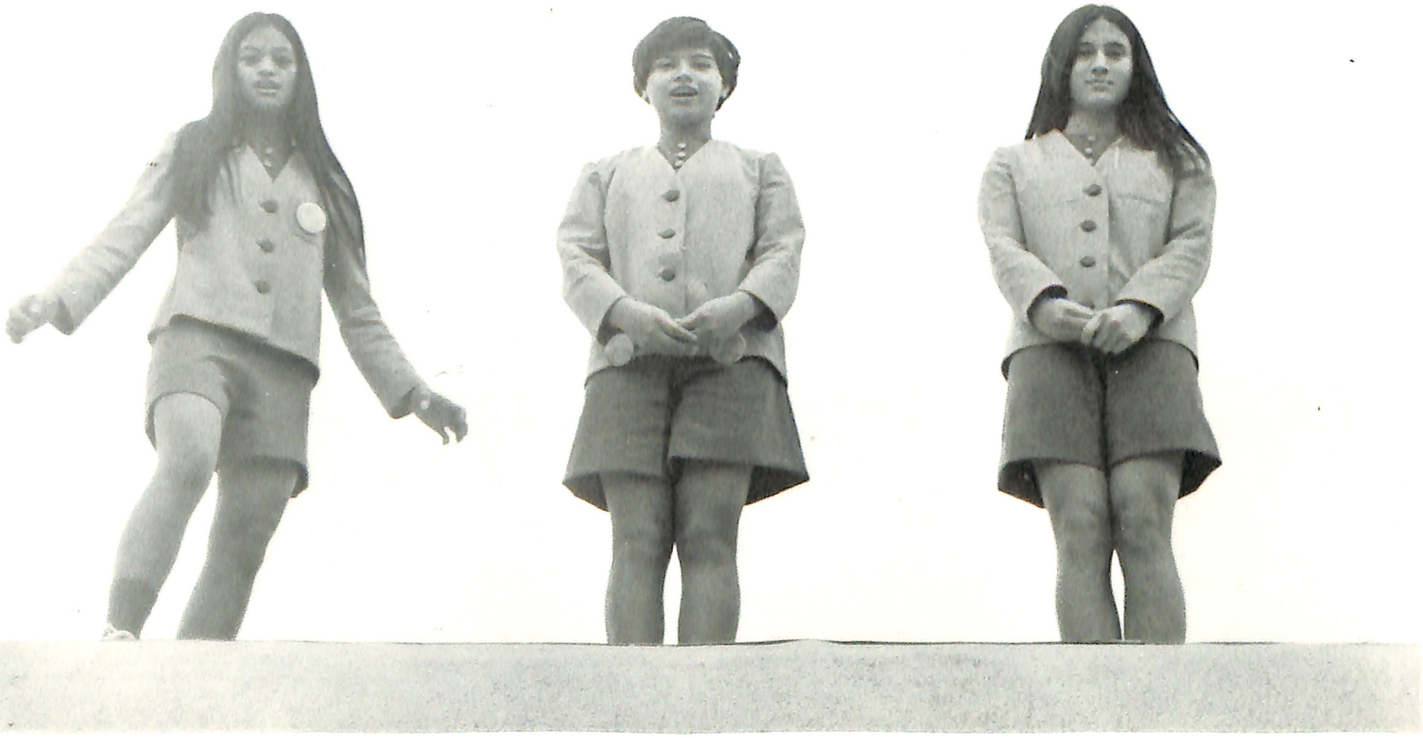

Varsity Cheerleaders (above)
Front—Nobuko Lindsey;
Middle—Diane Tagudin, Linda Martin, Connie Simmons;
Back—Frankie Davis, alternate.

PEP SQUAD PROMOTES THE NOW SPIRIT

Jumping, clapping, cheering — the story of our spirited Pep Squad . . . a routine in the rain, a cartwheel through the dust . . . practicing in gym clothes, yelling until throats go hoarse . . . promoting pride, promoting courage, promoting spirit . . . pride in what we have, courage to keep on trying, spirit for the team, for the people, for the ideas and ideals which form and change our school . . . the NOW spirit.

SPIRIT WITH SOUL

The air was charged with electricity . . . "Natural Soul" poured forth vibrations . . . spontaneous dancers dotted the crowd as we enjoyed a special soul rally — a new tradition in our school.

SADIE HAWKINS

"Come and join me for some kickapoo joy juice," begged Daisy Mae, "and we'll rock out to "Cotton Mouth." Don't be late, 'cause I have to be in by 10." So we did, and I saw Bo in his beautiful beard. We liked it for his sake. By the way, Bo Seymour was the winner of the beard growing contest.

WINNER OF FACULTY-VARSITY BASKETBALL GAME STILL A MYSTERY

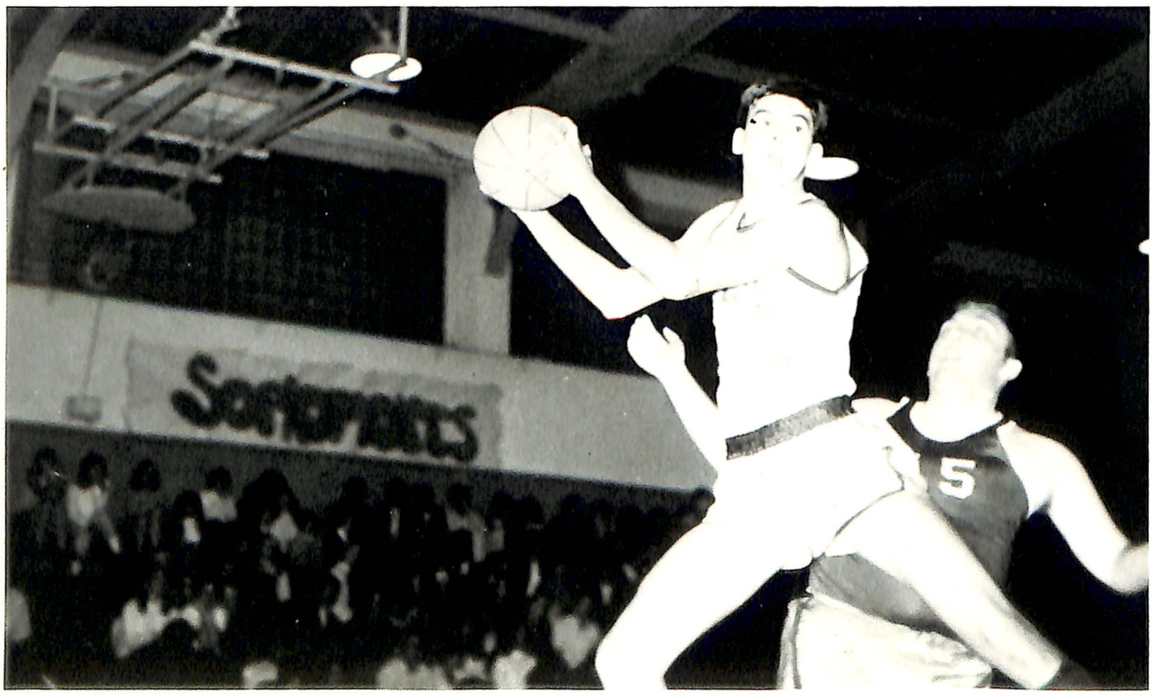

The young and inexperienced Armijo Indians opened their 1968-69 season with a near up-set overtime victory against the heavily favored faculty. The Injuns jumped out to a 11-10 lead at the end of the first period, but faltered a little and trailed by one point at the half. The fighting Faculty came out for the third quarter red hot, and by the time the quarter had ended, the Faculty's lead had extended to 41-36.

In the fourth quarter the Indian's attack had started to jell. The Varsity narrowed the Faculty's lead to a slim two point spread, and with just seven seconds to play a George Martin steal, and lay-up left the game in an overtime.

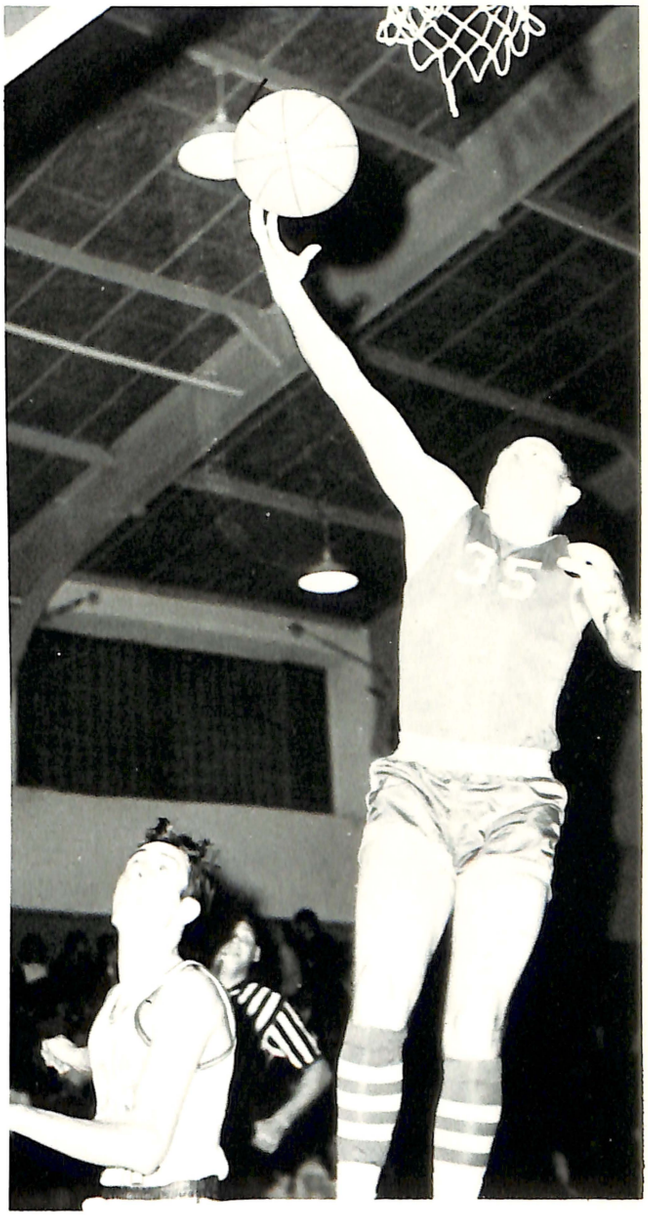

The overtime seemed just a little too much for the Indians as the Faculty with their size and a little help from the scorekeeper increased the lead to 6 and captured the victory by a 63-58 score, as reported by the faculty.

The varsity team had a consistent if not perfect, football season. Even though no games were won the team played hard.

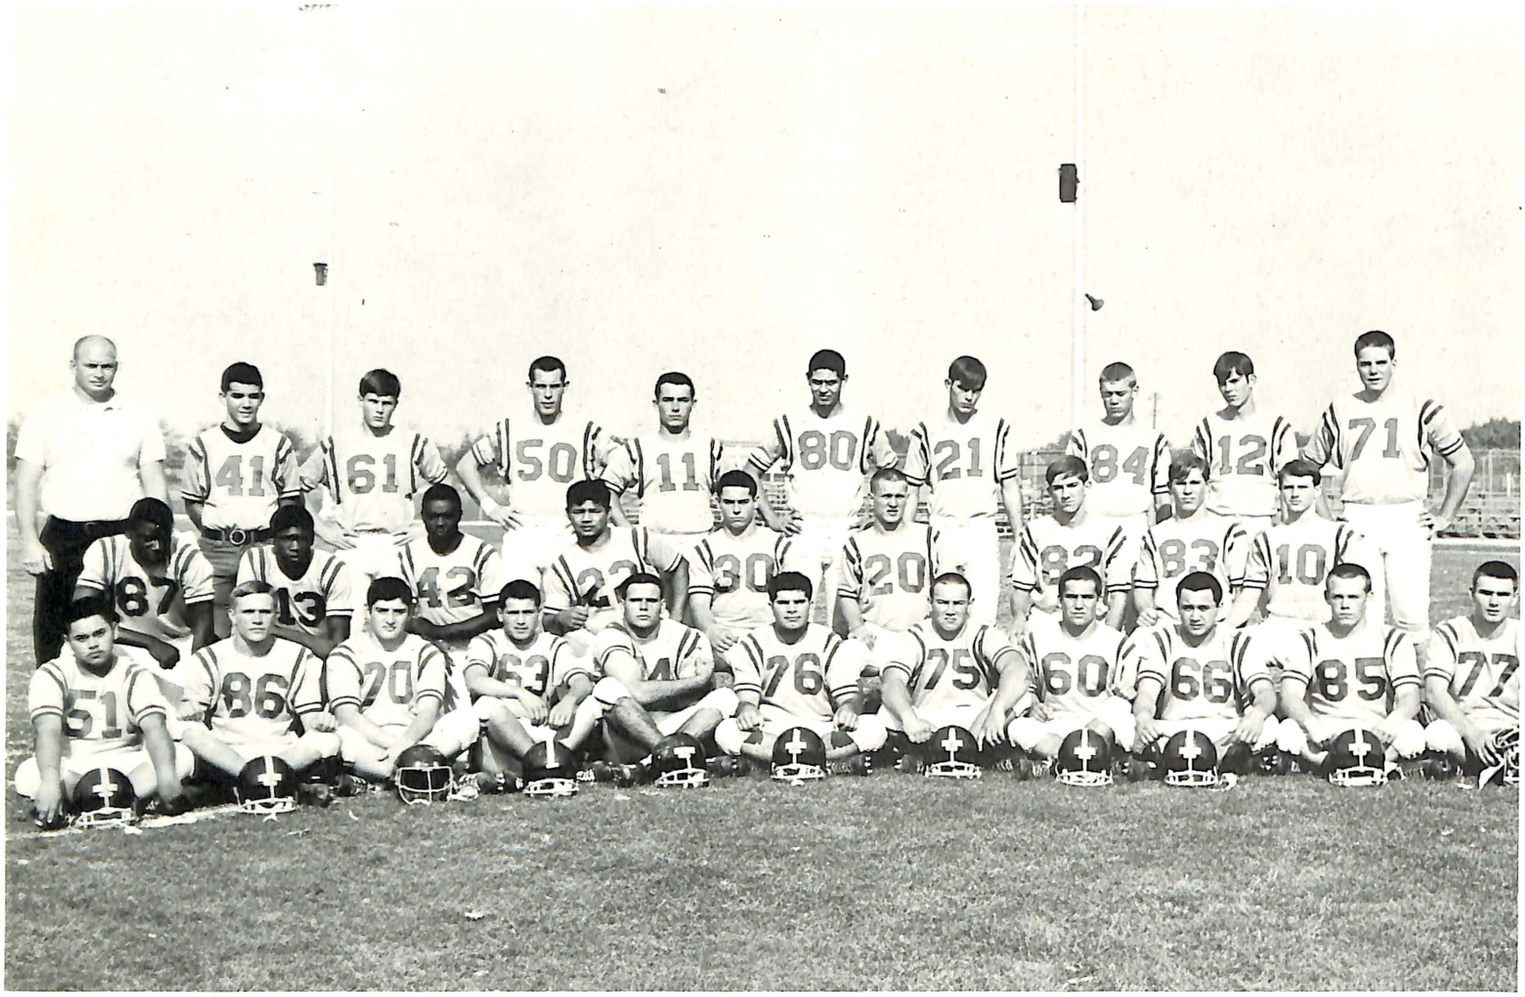

During the first game five starting players were injured and by the end of the season eleven gridders were unable to participate. The late arrival of our coach, Mr. Bill Fuller, may also have had bearing on the outcome of the season.

Two Armijo players made the defensive squad of Delta all league football team: Phil Glashoff, at tackle, and Woody Yarbrough at lineback.

In the all-city team, picked by coaches from the three high schools, five Indians made the squad: Butch Terry at center, Phil Glashoff at tackle, John Brooks at halfback and Woody Yarbrough at defensive line backer.

Receiving honorable mention were sophomore George Martin, at end; senior Tom Teany at wing back; and junior Gale Francis at tackle.

The junior varsity team rounded off its season with a 4-4-1 record and hoisted the Delta League mark from a 0-1-1 after the first two contests to a 4-2-1 standing by winning four of the last five games.

Alan Grant was the leading yardgainer for the junior Indians, netting 953 yards in 134 attempts for a 6.4 yard rushing average.

Guy Tokuda, who took Russ Little's position at quarterback midway through the season, threw 27 passes and completed 11. For a 41 percentage of 202 yards, George Martin played one game before promotion to varsity and completed 6 of 13 passes thrown for 46 yards. Little threw 44 passes and completed 10 for 81 yards.

They lost to Fairfield, who took first with no losses, 13-0, and to Davis 14-7. The papooses edged their crosstown rivals from Vanden 13-2 and beat Vacaville 20-6.

Frosh head Coach Gary Keeter commented, "Overall, we had a fine season. The 33 boys who stayed out for the whole season certainly improved a great deal, because they worked hard. We were a much better team at the end of the season, because we began to work as one unit and took pride in the team and in winning. Next year's junior varsity team should be a good one."

Dave Spitzer was the freshman outstanding offensive player of the year, and he and Pablo Jacabs tied for the outstanding defensive player.

1968-69 was a new year for Armijo wrestling. New Coach Ron Cortese directed the Indian Grapplers to a season record of 4 wins and 7 losses in dual matches and a fourth place final in the Delta League.

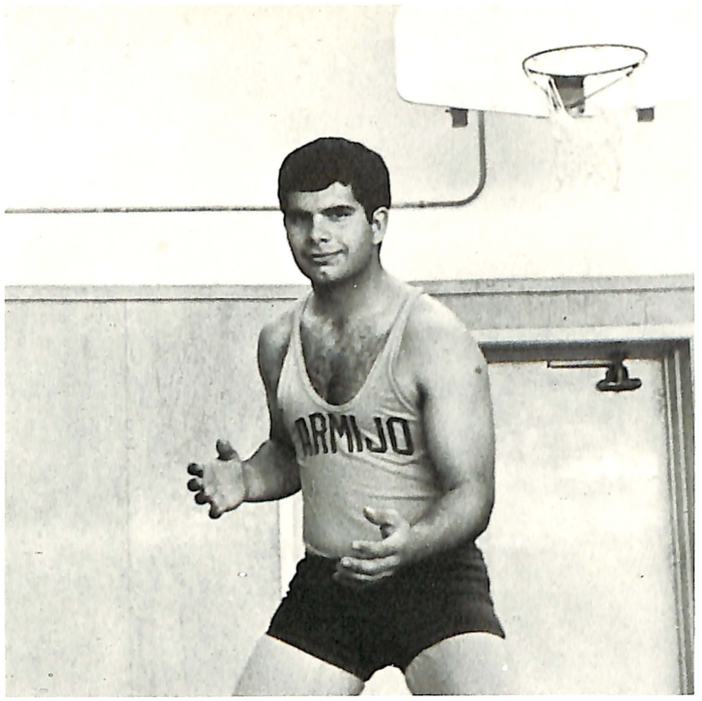

The Varsity, composed of 6 sophomores, 4 juniors and 4 seniors, only two of whom were experienced, promises to be a very strong team for 1969-70.

Some of our wrestlers who enjoyed a great deal of success include: Don Gunderson, HWT; Brian DeAmicis, 194; and John Silva, 123. These three placed second in the Delta League and earned the right to represent Armijo in the Sacramento-Joaquin subsection tournament.

Gunderson and DeAmicis won championship for Armijo at the Esparto Tournament while John Roll began the year with the Delta League Novice Tournament 148 lb. championship. Placing second in that tournament were Roy Lanham, 136; and Chico Bresnaham, 157.

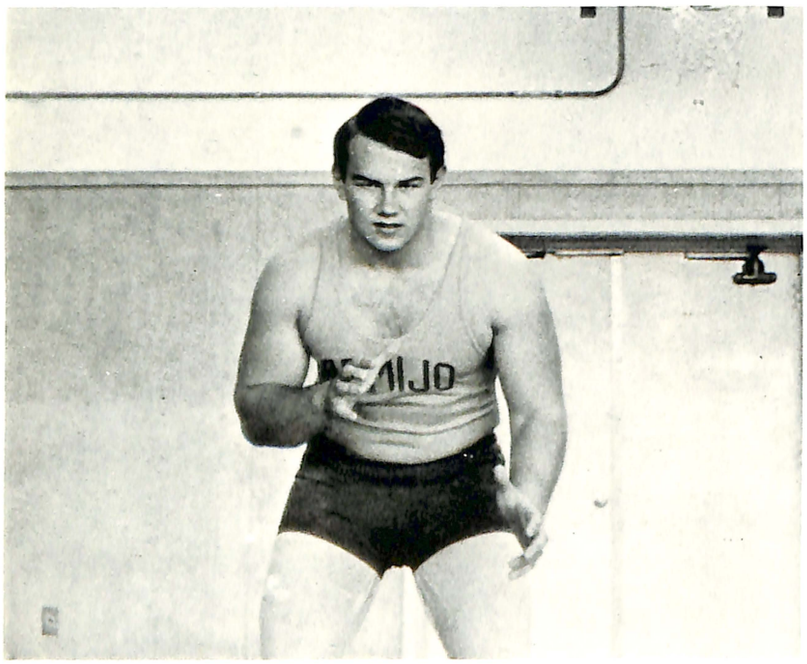

Selected to the All-City Wrestling Team were: John Silva, Brian DeAmicis, and Don Gunderson.

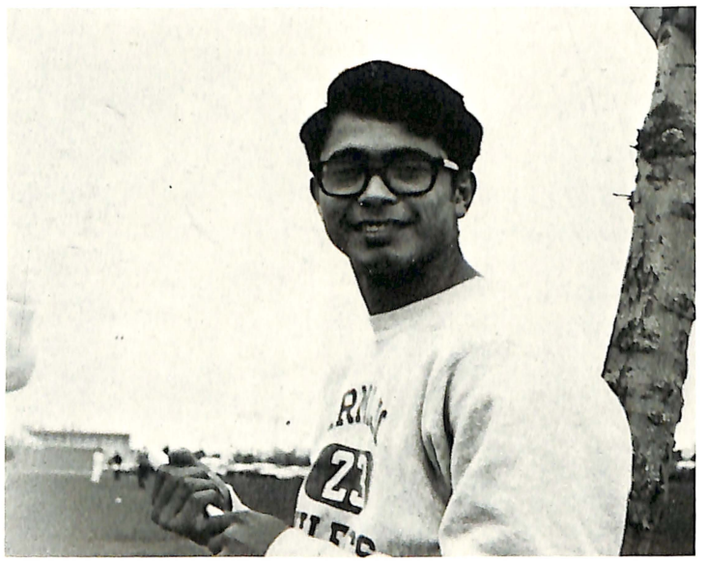

With the experience gained this year, 1969-70 figures to bring Armijo its most successful wrestling team yet.
